

Pure-Line Plumbing has an immediate opening that needs to be filled.

How would you like to work for a company that values its employees? At Pure-Line Plumbing we believe a happy and appreciated employee provides the best customer service, and our low turnover rate proves it. This company was created by technicians who have worked in many different plumbing environments and get it. They've figured out how to do business in a way that benefits our technicians and our customers. Now we're growing and are excited to add some folks to our team.

If you're an experienced technician who enjoys problem solving, we want to talk to you. Pure-Line Plumbing is a residential and commercial plumbing company that offers training and career advancement opportunities because we understand it's an important element of job satisfaction. We want this to be a career for you, not just a job.

At Pure-Line Plumbing technicians are given all the support they need to be successful. We provide each of our technicians with a fully stocked truck in addition to the many other benefits we offer, which include:

- Bonus Opportunities
- Career Advancement
- Medical Benefits
